The most hilarious moment in life

If you take your childhood, then somehow I ran away from my grandmother on a field trip and climbed one of the excursion buses to the mountain with the face of Christ in Kislovodsk, but I could not go down. I also remember being taken to the zoo (I had a high ponytail at the time) and being attacked by a monkey through the bars of the cage and pulling off the elastic bands. And when I was about five years old, I was killed by curiosity: I stuck my head through the fence on the embankment, but I couldn't get it out. So I suffered for 40 minutes. I managed it only after joking about having my ears cut off)
