The event or moment I regret about the most

Previously, and sometimes in the present, people at work bring to a breakdown. I would like to be more reserved and not show them my weakness.

Why I decided to become a donor?

I'd rather help than do nothing

My most vivid memory from childhood

It's a made-up memory, but I remember that I broke my nose in a children's camp because a tractor made of soft pillows ran over me. It's funny that I remember it that way.
